Shepherding: Guiding and Guarding

Dear brothers and sisters,
 This weekend we celebrate "The Good Shepherd Sunday and The World day of Vocations." I wish you the protection and the blessings of Good Shepherd in your life; and invite you pray for more vocations to priesthood and religious life to guard and guide God's people.

We are being shepherded by Jesus Himself; and we are also called to be shepherding others beginning from our families - spouse, children, brothers, sisters and friends. So, what is shepherding?

Two people were watching a man drive a herd of sheep through the main street of a small town. "I thought shepherds led sheep. I didn't know they drove them with a whip." "They do," the other man remarked. "That's not a shepherd. That's the town's butcher."

Shepherd needs a compassionate heart to know each one of them and understand their needs - and care for them with a nurturing heart: Looking for a nourishing pasture to thrive and grow for the people entrusted to him/her.

In order to protect, the shepherd needs to be vigilant, and strong - not only physically, but above all spiritually, mentally living in wisdom, knowing the good and bad alike and protecting the sheep from the bad; and not let anyone be lost; but if some one is lost, seek him/her and bring them back to the flock, family or community, or to God. This needs a heart that cares, with much love and compassion.

We do see some wrong shepherds, then and now, who don't follow the Good Shepherd. The Lord says, "Don't follow them." They are butchers, thieves - they drive you and control you to disaster and steal you. Read Psalm 23 and read it as a personal psalm to understand the qualities of a Good Shepherd and your shepherding others. Be a blessing, be a shepherd. Blessings! Msgr. Xavier

Church Personnel Certification VIRTUS Safe Environment

Before anyone begins work or volunteering in a ministry for the Church, they must have:

- ♦ A criminal background check (done at virtusonline.org).
- ♦ Commitment to the Code of Conduct for Church Personnel.
- ♦ Attendance at a facilitated, in-person training session.

This process is an essential commitment of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People and our diocese. As before, the CPC must be renewed every three years in order to remain in compliance.

Bishop's Annual Appeal: (Diocesan Appeal)

This weekend is an opportunity for those who have not given to the Appeal another chance to support the shared ministries of every parish in the Diocese. Our parish goal is $66,000. So far, we have raised $25,608. With your help, we can reach our goal!

Luke 24:36-48

We are expected to witness to Resurrection through what the apostles heard and saw in the Lord Jesus.

Witnessing is not only preaching through oral proclamation, but also living the NEW life in Christ.

"The disciples were startled and terrified....Are you terrified, startled, troubled & doubting? How do you handle those moments?"

Jesus says, "TOUCH, SEE, FEEL AND UNDERSTAND." Jesus ate fish with them to prove that HE wasn't a ghost. but a REAL person. Feel the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist when you touch Him. God-experience!
